

Economic & Fiscal Impact Specialists

Economic Impact Analysis Services for Supplier Diversity Programs

Impact DataSource provides comprehensive economic impact analyses that help organizations quantify and understand the full value of their supplier diversity initiatives. With over 30 years of experience and thousands of economic impact studies conducted across the entire United States, we deliver detailed insights into how supplier diversity spending affects local and regional economies.

Our Analysis Includes

Comprehensive Economic Impact Metrics

- Direct, indirect, & induced economic impacts
- Production / spending effects
- Job creation and employment effects
- Salary and wage impact across all effect levels

Segmentation by Certified Category

- Women Business Enterprise (WBE)
- Minority Business Enterprise (MBE)
- Small Business Enterprise (SBE)
- Veteran-owned businesses (VBE/VOSB)
- Additional certification categories as needed

Professional Deliverables

- Custom-branded infographic report highlighting key findings
- Supplementary detailed multi-page analysis
- Regional economic impact breakdowns
- Industry sector analysis and insights

Our Process

Project Implementation

- Flexible reporting options to meet specific needs
- Confidential handling of all client information
- Professional review and revision process

Methodology

- Detailed supplier spending data analysis
- NAICS code-based business categorization
- Bureau of Economic Analysis RIMS II regional economic multipliers
- Geographic & industry-specific impact modeling